Equifax PO Box 740241 Atlanta, GA 30374

Dear Customer Service Representative:

IQ DATA INT IQD0AVE1938467990:

Equifax is reporting an account on my credit report that I do not recognize. Upon further examination and research it became obvious that even IF the alleged account did belong to me, there are other serious and illegal reporting errors. The Date of Delinquency that you are reporting is not even possible since it occurs after the open date for the collection. The Date of Delinquency is with the original creditor. I believe this is a purposeful attempt to re-age the debt and unfairly harm my credit score, which I have heard is common with collection agencies. I request this re-aged account be removed immediately.

Equifax is reporting this account inaccurately. I am enclosing a copy of the investigation results from another credit bureau which shows that they accurately completed their investigation and corrected my report. The enclosed reinvestigation is proof that the disputed information was found inaccurate or incomplete and must be corrected. There is only ONE source of information and that's the creditor. If the other bureau contacted the creditor and determined it should deleted; there is no excuse for Equifax to continue reporting the very same inaccurate account. Now that I have informed you of this new information, Equifax is open to liability. Please remove this erroneous account from my credit report.

Please provide me an updated credit report with the corrected information. Your expeditious response to this request is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Justin Fletcher 4008 N 79th Ln Phoenix, AZ 85033 SSN: 601-81-1271

Trans Union is reporting information on my credit report which I do not recognize. I contacted the company directly and they were unable to find any information regarding the account they are reporting. I don't understand why they can't find information for information that they are reporting, but they told me to contact the credit bureaus.

This information must belong to someone else; maybe someone with a similar name or social security number? I only know that it is not mine. I just recently sent to you my current identity documentation to update my personal information on my report so you should be able to clearly identify that the information does not belong to me.

Please provide me an updated credit report with the corrected information. Your expeditious response to this request is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Justin Fletcher 4008 N 79th Ln Phoenix, AZ 85033 SSN: 601-81-1271

You received my letter disputing the accuracy of account information on my credit report, over thirty (30) days ago. Experian was supposed to reply to me within 30 days. That has now expired; it must be that the information I disputed was either inaccurate, or it could not be verified so it needs to be deleted.

Dear Customer Service Representative:

CREDIT COLL 68525618:

I recently pulled my credit report and discovered a collection account I did not recognize. I have no knowledge of this collection and I am formally requesting validation of the debt. I never entered into any contractual arrangements with CREDIT COLL. I am officially disputing this debt and any subsequent update or reporting to the credit bureaus will be documented and considered collection activity. I think you are illegally re-aging this account so you have longer to collect. I did some research and I request that you provide me the following proof documentation Do not waste my time or yours by simply sending me a letter, without the following proof attached: payment history provided by the original creditor showing when the last payment was made, the original creditor's name and address, the original contract with my personal signature, proof that you legally own the debt, proof that you sent me initial notice of the debt since I don't believe I received anything, original amount of the debt and how you calculated what you say I owe.

Please update your reporting information. Your expeditious response to this request is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Justin Fletcher 4008 N 79th Ln Phoenix, AZ 85033 SSN: XXX-XX-1271
